Discussion Guide: A League Of Their Own

A League of Their Own depicts the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League, a true story set against the backdrop of World War II. Some of the themes featured in the film include perseverance, strength of community, teamwork, and leadership.

Take advantage of the teachable moments presented in A League of Their Own by using these questions to help guide a discussion with your team or children.

- 1.) Why do you think it was so hard for society to accept that women were playing baseball? What made the league so successful?

- 2.) What examples can you find of Rockford Peaches' players exemplifying a Triple-Impact Competitor®? Name 3 and discuss.

- 3.) Do the Rockford Peaches focus more on a Scoreboard definition of winning or a Mastery approach?

- 4.) What qualities does Dottie have that make her a team leader?

- 5.) Consider Jimmy's journey as a manager throughout the movie. What differences do you see in his style from the beginning of the season to the World Series?

- 5.) Why do you think Dottie is reluctant to attend the opening of the exhibit at the end of the movie?
